WORKING TO RESCUE MEN UNDERGROUND

Four Miners Trapped When Fire Causes Collapse of Mine Entrance

RESCUERS LABOR IN NARROW AIR SHAFT

SEXTON COAL MINE, Near Moberly, Mo., Aug. 18 (AP).—Miners working in crews of five toiled in an air shaft tonight in an attempt to save four men entombed in the main mine.
Fire which swept through the superstructure in mid-afternoon, trapping the men, was almost out tonight but collapse of the shaft thwarted a rescue from that end.

Joe Boardman and Sterling Colley, members of the rescue crew working in the abandoned air shaft, reported when they came up for rest that they believed they heard faint tapping sounds from the direction of the main shaft.

ANOTHER TWENTY FEET Boardman said at 9:20 tonight about twenty feet of dirt remained to be removed between the air shaft and the main shaft.

The trapped men were said to be Demmer Sexton, Edward Stoner, George T. Dameron, a negro, and a fourth man known as "Mac."

Sexton and Stoner leased the mine recently and have been working for the past two weeks to get it ready to operate. Dameron was a mile driver. All three are from Huntsville, Mo.

Mouth of the air shaft through which the rescuers were working is a quarter-mile from the mine. The horizontal part of the shaft, Boardman said, is in places only "half a yard" wide.

PARTY HEAD NOMINATED

Dr. Frank P. Patterson To Contest Burrard By-Election

VANCOUVER, Aug. 18 (AP).—Dr. Frank P. Patterson, recently named leader of the Conservative party in British Columbia, tonight was named as that party's candidate in the forthcoming Provincial by-election in Vancouver-Burrard.

The by-election, necessitated by the resignation of Mayor G. G. McGeer, M.P., to contest the same seat in the last federal election, will be held September 2.

J. Howard Forester has been named Liberal candidate and Dr. Lyle Telford, C.C.F. standard-bearer.

UNANIMOUS CHOICE Dr. Patterson was unanimously selected by his party amid scenes of old-time enthusiasm, escorted to the platform by a pipe while the credential committee reported on the 27th delegates attendance.

In addressing the meeting, Dr. Patterson charged the Government with amending the Constitution Act to suit its convenience and to strengthen the constituency's representation.

Turning to the C.C.F. Opposition, Dr. Patterson said:

"The C.C.F. Federal policy in extending the franchise to Orientals will defeat its candidate. For three years we in British Columbia have endeavored to educate the East to the dangers of unrestricted Oriental immigration, but Mr. Woodsworth, Mr. McInnes and their followers would strengthen these Orientals in their competition with our workmen and businessmen and, owing to their numbers, give them a very definite influence in the control of government in this province."

DIES FROM INJURIES

VANCOUVER, Aug. 18 (AP).—Five-year-old Colleen McKinnley died in hospital here late today from injuries suffered yesterday when knocked down by an automobile near her home. Police said no charge had been laid against William Hendrickson, alleged driver of the automobile.

LONDON, Aug. 18 (AP).—Two hundred and thirty-seven up-and-coming fishermen between the ages of five and fifteen entered the annual Tiddler Tournament off Deal Pier, Kent, yesterday. In three hours they consumed 1,500 buns, 1,000 bottles of ginger beer and three bushels of apples. As bait they used 5,000 worms and three bushels of cockles. They caught thirty-one fish of a total weight of three pounds, ten ounces; seventy-eight crabs, 217 starfish, twelve bunches of seaweed and one dustbin lid. The winning catch was flatfish weighing 6 3/4 ounces. Everybody got a prize.

FALL OF ROCK IS FATAL TO MINER

George William Mortimer Dies in Nanaimo Hospital Following Accident Underground

NANAIMO, Aug. 18.—George William Mortimer, fifty-eight, died in the local hospital at 1 p.m. today, as the result of being struck by a fall of rock while engaged as a miner in No. 1 seam here today.

Dr. N. Hall was summoned and rendered first aid, after which Mortimer was removed to the local hospital, where he died without having regained consciousness. He had received a fractured skull and internal injuries.

Mr. Mortimer was born in St. Oswald, Durham, England. He came to Nanaimo twenty-five years ago, and has been employed in the local mines continuously. He was a member of the Odd Fellows Encampment, and is survived by his wife, one daughter, Mrs. Eva Forts, Nanaimo, and two grandchildren.

Pending funeral arrangements, the remains are at the Chapman Funeral Home.

Proposes Formation of Federation to Replace Dominion-Wide Body

TELLS CONVENTION OF LOCAL PROBLEM

VANCOUVER, Aug. 18 (AP).—Mayor David Leeming, of Victoria, said tonight he would move dissolution of the Union of Canadian Municipalities and in its place formation of a federation of delegates from representative municipal unions throughout Canada.

Disappointment at the sparse attendance at the union's convention which opened here today prompted the Victoria mayor's statement. Only twenty-five delegates were present when the convention was called to order, Mayor Leeming said, and even with the dozen or so Eastern and Pacific delegates en route here and delayed by rail tie-ups east of here, the meeting would be far from representative of Dominion municipalities.

WINNIPEG CENTRE

Under Mayor Leeming's proposal, he said the Canadian mayors' conference would cease to function, its duties being taken over by the federation. He suggested the new organization, if formed, meet annually at a central city, preferably Winnipeg, which would obviate delegates from making a trans-Canada trip to lay their problems before the organization.

LONDON MAYOR AT VANCOUVER

Sir Percy Vincent Delayed For Hours by Mudslide in B.C. Interior

VANCOUVER, Aug. 18 (AP).—Suk-hat, bejewelled Sir Percy Vincent, Lord Mayor of London, met informally, Mayor Gerald G. McGeer, of Vancouver, on a station platform late tonight.

The meeting between the Lord Mayor of the Empire capital and the Chief Magistrate of the farthest metropolis of the Commonwealth, took place a few minutes after the tapestry-upholstered private car of the British majority party pulled in belatedly from the mudslide blocked passes of the Rocky Mountains where the train was held up twelve hours today.

But before Mayor McGeer came running along the platform Sir Percy had already stepped from his car and spoken to the small group of railway officials and former Londoners who clustered on the platform.

The Lord Mayor will spend tonight in his car. Tomorrow the delayed official parade will take him on the round of entertainment planned previously in public buildings which flew the flag with the cross of St. George and dagger which is the official ensign.

Italian Air Fleet Held Ready to Aid Rebels as Loyalists Lose Ground

Insurgent Leaders Now Claim to Hold Two-Thirds Of Spain

MOVE HEADQUARTERS FOR MADRID ATTACK

WITH THE REBEL ARMY, BURGOS, Spain, Aug. 18 (AP).—The rebel leaders announced tonight their headquarters would be shifted from Burgos to Valladolid, preparatory to an attack on Madrid.

Officers said the transfer to Valladolid, which is nearer the capital, meant early action against the city by troops under Gen. Emilio Mola, rebel commander for the North.

Two battalions of the Foreign Legion, entrained from Valladolid for the Bilbao front where an attempt will be launched, officers said, to recapture that city as quickly as possible.

They added the infantry advance on Iru would be slowed up until warships and airplanes could silence the Forts San Marco and Guadalupe.

POISON GAS CHARGED General Mola tonight hinted that if Government Loyalist forces continued to use poison gas they might receive a dose of their own medicine, although he said "We never for a moment contemplated its use against Spaniards." (Loyalists have denied using poison gas.)

Earlier in the day the rebel leaders had proclaimed that two-thirds of Spain already was in their grasp. The rebel junta announced it would notify foreign governments and Red Cross headquarters in Geneva about the poison gas bombs, and that it would tell them the Loyalist air forces have been dropping the bombs for the past two days.

HOUSE TO GIVE MUNICIPAL AID

Premier Pattullo Opens Liberal Campaign in Burrard With Promise

VANCOUVER, Aug. 18.—Promising a "substantial benefit to the municipalities" in legislation to be introduced at the forthcoming session of the Legislature, Premier P. D. Pattullo opened the Liberal campaign for the election of Howard Forester to fill out the term of Mayor G. G. McGeer, K.C., who resigned from the Provincial House when he entered the Federal political arena.

The Premier attacked the C.C.F. platform as "nebulous and visionary," adding that "even were it possible to attempt to try it, it could only function at all by ruthless and distasteful methods."

He passed by the Conservative party, which will also contest the seat which Mr. Forester is seeking to retain for the Liberals, with the remark that the Conservative policy was a "stand pat" one.

WORK AND WAGES

The majority of the Premier's time was taken up in justifying his Government. He maintained that the major portion of the pre-election pledges were either carried out or were in process of being fulfilled.

In respect of work and wages, he again stated that his promises in this regard were predicated upon the co-operation of the Dominion by making national credit available. He asserted, however, that due to his Government's private industry had increased payrolls immensely.

"It is the aim and object of this Government," he said "to place the province in such sound position that we shall be able to function within the ambit of our jurisdiction without appeal to the Dominion for aid. This is the crux of the whole position, and to this end we shall unwaveringly bend our efforts."

Prominent Victorian Succumbs in Vancouver While On Vacation

Stricken while on vacation in Vancouver, William H. Kinsman, prominent Victorian and former alderman, died there late Monday, it was learned here yesterday. ## Governor Given Hearty Welcome in Island Cities

His Excellency Pays High Tribute to Hospitality of Canada and Beauty of Vancouver Island—Presentations Made at Dinner at Nanaimo—Civic Welcome at Duncan

NANAIMO, Aug. 18.—Mayor Barsby, with Aldermen Hindmarch, Inkster and Drake, and representatives of service clubs and patriotic organizations two hundred strong, dined with Their Excellencies Lord and Lady Tweedmuir and party at the Hotel Malaspina here today.

In extending welcome to the distinguished visitors on behalf of the citizens of Nanaimo, Mayor Barsby said: "We believe we have the most beautiful city on the Coast here, unsurpassed for scenery and also for the type of citizenry. No people are more loyal to King and Empire, a fact testified by the long list of names on the bronze tablet of our War Memorial and also by the list of those who were willing, if necessary to have their names placed there, but were fortunate enough to return."

TOUCHING HOSPITALITY His Excellency the Governor-General, in reply, said that his physician had disciplined his speech as well as his diet, but emphasized how deeply touched he was by the hospitality shown him by Canada, which was enough to touch the heart of stone.

"I never saw anything like it," said His Excellency. "I never dreamed such beauty existed on this continent."

Mussolini Said to Be Prepared to Help Spanish Fascists if France Continues to Assist Madrid Government—Germany Withholding From Neutrality Pact Awaiting Italian Decision

Paris Is Not Satisfied With Answers to Peace Proposals

ROME, Aug. 18 (AP).—Italy's mighty air fleet was cleared for action tonight and pilots were ordered to be prepared for flight at a moment's notice, as well-informed sources said Premier Mussolini would help openly Spanish Fascist rebels if France continued openly aiding the Socialist Madrid Government.

All strategic airdromes along the Tyrrhenian coast were ordered kept prepared for any developments.

Aviators were told to remain within call, all planes were ordered tuned for a take-off, and a canvass was made to learn which pilots spoke or understood Spanish.

Radio messages from both sides in Spain were being intercepted by the powerful Government radio station near Rome which was ordered to devote its activities to this in order to follow the situation from minute to minute.

It was boasted here among aviators that the Spanish Loyalist battleship Jaime I had been sunk by an 800-kilogram bomb dropped squarely upon it from the plane of an Italian major.

An aerial battle between Italian and French planes in the service of the Spanish combatants was believed to have taken place already over Gibraltar.

A swift 8-81 Italian bomber was said to have fought off two French pursuit planes which attacked it without resultant casualties.

Italian resentment against French activities on behalf of the Socialist Madrid Government was fanned by bitterly sarcastic comment in the Italian press.

BERLIN, Aug. 18 (AP).—Official quarters said tonight Chancellor Hitler will not bind himself to neutrality in the Spanish civil war unless Premier Mussolini joins the agreement.

LIBERALS LEFT WITH FOURTEEN

Premier-Designate Duplessis Expects to Assume Office Next Week

QUEBEC, Aug. 18 (AP).—In about a week a new Government will take over administration of Quebec. Snapping a chain of Liberal victories stretching back to 1897, Premier-Designate Maurice Duplessis and his Union Nationale forces gained seventy-six of the ninety seats in the Legislative Assembly at the provincial election yesterday, leaving only fourteen for the erstwhile Liberal Government of Premier Adélard Godbout.

Preboding silence hung over the Legislative Buildings today, Premier Godbout, defeated in his own constituency of L'Islet, and his Cabinet, of which six met defeat and four were elected, failed to appear at Government offices. Last night the Premier said he would turn the business of Government over to his successor next week.

REMAINS AT THREE RIVERS

Mr. Duplessis remained in his Three Rivers home all day reading congratulatory messages and conferring with his intimates. It was expected he would assume office by next Wednesday.

Complete returns trickled in slowly from wide-spread constituencies, but most of them merely confirmed results reported election night. An exception was news from Bonaventure, in Gaspé Peninsula, where Hon. Pierre-Emile Bouchard, Minister of Roads in both Taschereau and Godbout Cabinets, had been defeated by Henri Jalouzeau, his Union Nationale opponent. Instead of having vanquished him as reported last night, his defeat shifted the balance, but slightly, giving the new Government a majority of eighty-two, with seventy-six seats to fourteen for the Liberals.

Big Cache of Rum Seized at Halifax

HALIFAX, Aug. 18 (AP).—Royal Canadian Mounted Police seized 118 five-gallon kegs of rum, valued at $7,000 today at Blomidon Bay, twenty miles west of here. The cache, sought for some weeks, was located by Inspector J. P. Blakney.

Owner of Store Is Arrested on Charge of Arson

Julius Cohen Held Without Bail Following Investigation of Fire in Montreal That Claimed Lives of Three Firemen and Caused Injury to Thirty-Five—Gives Explanation

MONTREAL, Aug. 12.—Arrest of Julius Cohen, forty-nine, on arson charges arising from a fire in a block of stores here last night, in which three firemen were killed and thirty-five others injured, climaxed an investigation into cause of the outbreak.

Cohen, part owner of Maison Canadienne, clothing store which was destroyed by fire and explosion, was ordered held without bail. He will be arraigned tomorrow. Romeo Vidal, manager of the store which has been in bankruptcy since last May, was ordered detained as material witness.

Those killed, Francois Beaulieu, forty-three; Pierre Plouffe, forty-two; and Albert Guerin, thirty-nine, will be accorded a civic funeral Friday. The men were trapped in the debris of the burning building when a sudden blast shattered the walls and crumbled the floors and ceilings.

"PLANNED FIRE"

The arrest of Cohen and detention of Vidal followed evidence given before Fire Commissioner Emile Macleod, that the fire apparently had been planned. Gasoline-soaked furs were found in the ruins, and firemen testified only a planned fire could have spread so rapidly.

Cohen, questioned by Philippe Brise, representing insurance investigators, said the firm, declared in bankruptcy last May, has carried no insurance for five or six years because "it was on the 'black list'." There had been previous fires, he declared, one in 1914 in his father's store, and another in 1930 in a branch of Maison Canadienne.

RAN BACK

Last night, Cohen continued, he left his store shortly before 7 p.m., accompanied by Sam Schwartz, owner of a store near Cohen's. As they left the store, Cohen said, he emerged from the building, he said, and he himself ran back into the store to try to find a fire extinguisher.

Smoke was too thick, witness said, so he ran outside again to sound an alarm, only to find that he had already been arrested. There were fur skins on the second floor, Cohen testified, which had been covered with naphthalene for preservation.

enjoyed the community singing, which was under the direction of James Scales and Charles Spokewell. He asked to hear several of the service club songs, and joined heartily in the singing of "Loch Lomond," as did Lady Tweedsmuir when "Auld Lang Syne" was sung at her request.

P. Creagh, president of the Rotary Club, moved the vote of thanks to His Excellency for his address, and various presentations were made.

James Scales, president of the Kwanit Club, presented a miniature of the historic gun on the Bastion, used to quell Indian uprisings in early days. Howard McCarthy made a presentation for the Gyro Club. The infant service club of Nanaimo Mrs. Reynolds made a presentation for the loyal and loving members of Nanaimo Red Cross.

Mrs. Baker, representing Bastion Chapter, presented a picture of the Bastion to Lady Tweedsmuir, and Miss Grace Maxwell presented Lady Tweedsmuir with a bouquet. Mrs. W. Clemens, of the Canadian Club, asked Her Excellency to accept a painting of the Princess Royal, the steamer which brought the first coal miners to Nanaimo. Miss Thornycroft and Miss Dore Nixon, of the Girl Guides, also presented their Excellencies and members of their party with flowers.

DUNCAN RECEPTION
DUNCAN, Aug. 12.—A large gathering assembled at the Cenotaph this morning to see Lord Tweedsmuir and his party, when His Excellency placed a wreath on the Cross of Sacrifice and received an official welcome.

Mayor Greig made the arrangements for the welcome and others present were Hugh Savage, M.P.; Reeve Tisdall, J. S. Taylor, M.P.; S. H. Hoskins, Government agent; H. Graham, Indian agent; E. W. Hoskins, president of the Cowichan Hospital Association, who was with Lord Milner in South Africa; and Lord Tweedsmuir was there, C. C. Palmer, one of the few Indian Mutiny survivors, Joseph Beale, who was at Branscombe College with Asquith and Haig, Professor Logan, superintendent of Fairbridge Farm School, where their Excellencies will visit on their return down the Island.

RARE COMBINATION
A mining city and a city of beauty, he added, was in his estimation a rare combination, one he had not encountered in all his travels.

He commended the work of the service clubs, a movement which he recognized had brought a real influence into the service of humanity.

Concluding, His Excellency said: "You cannot be too proud of your city. If you are not proud of your city, you will not be proud of your Empire."

The Governor-General evidently

Ancient Flagon to Be Presented With Impressive Rites

Lord Mayor of London Bringing Historic Vessel to Be Presented at Special Service at Christ Church Cathedral Friday Afternoon

A special service at Christ Church Cathedral next Friday afternoon at 3 o'clock, Sir Percy Vincent, Lord Mayor of London, will present an ancient flagon, the gift of the rector and churchwardens of the Church of St. Mary Woolnoth, London, for use in the Holy Communion.

The Order of Service, which is now off the press, gives the full details of the rites, which will begin with the singing of the hymn, "Now Thank We All Our God," to be followed by the reading of selected portions of the Scriptures by Dean Quilton, prayers and responses; the reading of Psalm 84 by Bishop Selwyn; the hymn, "Lord of Heaven and Earth and Ocean," to be sung by the choir of the cathedral church of St. Mary Woolnoth to abide the directions of the consistory court of the Diocese of London.

UNUSUAL CEREMONY
Two shall follow the ceremony of the presentation and reception of the flagon by the Lord Mayor of London, who previously shall have been met at the west end of the cathedral by the bishop, the dean and churchwardens, and conducted to his seat. The Lord Mayor, in the presence of the presentation to the dean, will say such words as he may deem fitting, and the dean, having received the flagon, shall make grateful reply, afterwards handing the flagon to the churchwarden and placing it in his custody "on behalf of the bishop, the dean, and chapter of the cathedral, and the congregation of the cathedral parish."

The churchwardens, having accepted the gift on behalf of the dean, shall then return the flagon to the dean to be placed on the altar and the service will conclude with the hymn, "The King of Love My Shepherd Is," the National Anthem, and the pronouncing of the Benediction.

WORK OF ART
Dean Quilton has received from Rev. W. E. S. Holland, of St. Mary Woolnoth Church, London, a description of the flagon which is being brought to Victoria by the local party.

"It is," he writes, "really something very beautiful, and of more than ordinary historical interest. It was only with the greatest hesitation that I mustered courage to propose to our vestry that we should make this presentation, and was the more delighted by the cordiality with which the proposition was at once taken up and with the universal approval that has so far followed our proposal."

Fifteen inches high of silver gilt and weighing about seventy-two ounces, this vessel is one of a pair dated 1587, in the reign of Elizabeth presented in 1687 to the united parishes of St. Mary Woolnoth and St. Mary Abchurch, Havering, in the parish of London in exchange for plate that had been given to St. Mary Woolnoth by the Rev. Sir Thomas Rich, merchant, knight and baronet in 1629. They are said to be the oldest and by far the most elaborately decorated in the churches of the City of London. This particular flagon was made over to Sir Percy Vincent, Lord Mayor of London, by the rector and council of St. Mary Woolnoth parish church of the Mansion House for presentation by him as "a permanent loan to Christ Church Cathedral, Victoria, on the occasion of his visit to Vancouver in 1936."

The use of "permanent loan" in the terms of acceptance is explained elsewhere, in connection with the

BRITISH PARTY ENJOYS VISIT

Main Section Returning to Mainland Today—Lumber Group Is Up-Island

Having thoroughly enjoyed themselves during the last two days in Victoria, members of the British inspectional tour party who are seeing the province as the paying guests of the British Columbia Government, do not look forward to returning to the Mainland this afternoon. All have found their trip across Canada both enlightening and interesting, and they have pleaded to urge their friends to visit the Dominion.

The timber and lumber group of the party left yesterday morning for a three-day tour of Up-Island (lumber mills and logging camps). With Ernest C. Manning, Provincial chief forester, as their guide, they went to Chemainus where they visited the Victoria Lumber Company mill. From there they moved to the mill outside of Duncan, after which they visited Nanaimo and Qualicum Beach. Today they are scheduled to go through the mills at Alberni and visit Cathedral Grove. They are expected to return to Qualicum for the night and may fly tomorrow. Several plan to enjoy a few hours' fishing at Campbell River, before leaving for Vancouver via Nanaimo.

Members of the party who remained here yesterday spent some time in the Parliament Buildings, inspected the gardens of Government House and enjoyed drives about the city.

THREE SHOTS FIRED
Three shots were fired at Clark, and his clerk, Wesley Clark, twenty-two, as they chased the man down the street.

I heard the report of a shot," said Clark, "and McKinney was close behind me, gasped and said 'I'm shot.' I kept after the man and Mr. McKinney kept on after him, too."

By the corner of the street, Mr. McKinney managed to hit the fellow who fell, and I jumped on his back. There was another shot fired, but it must have gone into the ground."

PORTRAIT SHOWS THE KING IN FOG

By THOMAS T. CHAMPION
Canadian Press Staff Writer

On his left arm is a black armlet, and judging from the somewhat pale and drawn face on his face the picture was painted shortly after the death of his father.

TWIN FORCES DESTRUCTIVE

War and Irreligion Denounced at Convention of Knights of Columbus

TORONTO, Aug. 12.—War and Irreligion were denounced tonight by speakers at the dinner of the fifty-fourth international convention of the Supreme Council, Knights of Columbus, as the twin forces that would draw the world to destruction. Men and women everywhere plead for peace, said United States Senator David I. Walsh, of Massachusetts. "They are crying out in protest against the sacrifices and crushing burdens, human and economic, that war has exacted of them and their children."

A MAD RIVALRY

"Yet statesmen are still engaged in a mad rivalry for supremacy in armament and military power. Materialistic, mad and despotic statesmen plan and connive for war." Delegates from Cuba, Mexico, the United States and Canada were welcomed by Lieutenant-Governor Dr. Herbert A. Bruce, of Ontario, earlier. He agreed with a "rebuke" President Roosevelt administered on his Quebec visit, when he was referred to as a "foreign ruler," said Lieutenant-Governor Bruce.

The outstanding differences between today and the past lay in the field of religion, Senator Walsh said. Controversies in other days evolved around differences over dogmas, religious ceremonies and Christian ethics. Today the contest is between religion and irreligion, between God and godlessness.

RIGHTEOUS INDIGNATION

"The masses, righteously indignant at the extent to which selfishness and greed have denied them a just and equitable share of the fruits of industry, are turning to demagogic and destructive leadership," said Senator Walsh. He warned Knights of Columbus to stand aside from those who dreamed materialistic objectives in life as of prior importance. His solution for the world's troubles was a "militant influence for moral righteousness that will be felt everywhere."

The Knights of Columbus are opposed to doctrines that would destroy religion, said Supreme Knight Carmody, of Grand Rapids, Mich. Call it Communism, syndicalism or any other name, it is always the same host whose standards are built on the destruction of religion, fanaticism and hate. Stripped of its veneer and disguise, this is the enemy that menaces most Christianity and civilization today.

PHILOSOPHY OF HATE

"Through its philosophy of hate and absolutism, it would destroy initiative and penalize ability, discourage labor and industry, discredit man's ability to direct his own life and would regiment him into bondage under a dictatorship."

STANCOUS LIBERAL

Mr. Kinsman early displayed an interest in municipal and provincial affairs. He worked his way up through the various ward associations to become president of the Victoria Liberal Association a post he held for a number of years. A Liberal from his early youth, Mr. Kinsman was recognized as one of the staunchest supporters of that party in this city. He ran on the Liberal ticket in the Provincial elections in 1917.

Always showing a keen interest in the welfare of the community in which he lived for so many years, Mr. Kinsman offered his services for the City Council, and in 1912 was elected as alderman for a ten-year term, during which he rendered faithful service.

For many years identified with the Native Sons of British Columbia, Mr. Kinsman was a grand officer of the order during the years 1927-28. Prior to that time, he was chief factor of the Victoria post. He was an active member of the committee for the preservation of the old Crafton school house.

In his younger days "Bert" Kinsman was well-known for his athletic ability. He played against Alex. Peden and James Adam, two men

ANOTHER SEAT FOR DE VALERA

Wexford By-Election Brings Government Second Gain In Three Days

WEXFORD, Irish Free State, Aug. 12.—President de Valera's Pinnas Fall party won another seat today from the Opposition as M. D. Allen was elected to the Dail from this constituency by a majority of 6,529. The by-election was necessitated by the death of Sir Osmond Osmond, United Ireland party.

This was the second by-election in three days to result in the gain of a seat for the Government. On Sunday the Pinnas Fall candidate was elected for Galway, the largest constituency in the Free State, by a large majority.

RESULT OF VOTING
The voting today was as follows: Allen, 23,261; Captain John Esmond, United Ireland party, 16,734; Murphy, Labor, 4,276; Hayes, Left Republican, 1,361.

In a statement to the press De Valera thanked the electors of Galway and Wexford for "this renewed expression of trust and confidence." The Government could now face the work of the coming year with stout hearts, he said, "knowing that in their efforts to surmount the obstacles in their path they had the unswerving support of the great majority of the people."

"So you're the chief of police," said the stranger in a small American town. "Glad to know you. I wonder if I could also shake hands with the fire chief?"

PUSH WORK AT HAVILAH GOLD

Engineer Reports High Assays and Good Results From Cyanide Test

Following examination by J. B. Woodworth, M.E., the Havilah Gold Mines, Ltd., have made arrangements to push new activity in the development of their property in the Alberni district as suggested by the engineer. The report was made following tentative proposals from large mining interests to become associated with the enterprise. Of such an attractive character was the opinion of the engineer that the directors have decided to go ahead with their present programme of work being amply financed for the carrying out of their present plans.

Mr. Woodworth advised that in his opinion the Havilah has the makings of a good producing mine, and he suggested that they proceed along the course that had been mapped out, without outside financial assistance.

GOOD RESULTS

He stated that samples he had taken from the Alberni vein gave assays of $77, while he had given cyanide tests to the rock proving that the ore is amenable to such treatment.

Immediate plans call for the development of the No. 2 level on the Alberni vein in the short run, and other work on the Gillespie vein, construction of a permanent camp to permit continuation of work throughout the winter, and the widening of the pack trail to a tractor road width.

President J. A. Burchett last night intimated that the report of Mr. Woodworth confirmed the matured plan of the directors for the systematic and careful development of the property.

RECALLS LIFE OF IBERVILLE

H. G. Nolan, K.C., Traces Career of Heroic Figure in Canadian History

At the weekly luncheon meeting of the Kiwanis Club yesterday in the Empress Hotel, H. G. Nolan, K.C., Calgary, gave a most informative address on the life of Pierre le Moine, Sieur d'Iberville, whom he described as the First Great Canadian.

Mr. Nolan has a reputation as an orator and in his discourse the romance of Iberville, who was born in the village of Montreal in 1661, was traced up to the year 1706, when at the early age of forty-four he died, leading an expedition against the English settlements in the Carolinas.

Broken in health from his untiring efforts to stamp out the English settlements in America, Iberville was a man whose memory was all too infrequently recalled, said the speaker. There had been no more romantic figure and no more valiant soldier than he connected with the history of Canada.

In concluding his remarks, Mr. Nolan quoted from the works of Parkman, who praised the zeal of this "true son of Canada."

HATED BRITISH

From his earliest days, Iberville had conceived a deadly dislike to the British. Starting early in life to stamp out all attempts at colonization by the English on this continent, this intrepid soldier so nearly succeeded in the task that he took upon himself under the patronage of the King of France.

The life of the adventures lacked for nothing at the hands of Mr. Nolan, who in eloquent terms described the early life of the Canadian boy and his wonderful achievements in later years.

IN HUDSON BAY

His expedition up the Ottawa River with a small band and the portaging to the Moose River, thence down to Hudson Bay, was recalled. The descent upon the Hudson's Bay Company's trading posts and the seizure of British ships in the Bay were all dealt with. Later he led another expedition by ship to Hudson Bay when the work of cleaning up the attempts at trading posts was accomplished.

The expeditions to the Mississippi and to Louisiana for the establishment of the French rule there were related, together with the destruction of the British fishing colonies on the Newfoundland coast in the depth of winter and the onslaughts on the British in Acadia of various other parts of the continent.

The speaker was introduced by Harold M. Dizon. A D. King expressed the thanks of the meeting for the wonderfully enlightening address.

DR. E. H. GRIFFITHS EXPIRES SUDDENLY

Well-Known Victoria Dentist Is Found Dead Near His Car on Lansdowne Road

Dr. Griffiths had complained of feeling unwell on Monday relative to his dental practice.

An inquest has been called by Coroner Dr. E. C. Hart for this morning at 10 o'clock in Haywards B.C. Funeral Parlors.

A native son, Dr. Griffiths had by his kindly personality won a host of friends in Victoria, who will be shocked to learn of his death. He received his education here, and after obtaining his degree in dentistry, returned to Victoria to practice. Dr. Griffiths recently took Dr. Jack Mercer, young local dentist, into his business.

PREFERS TO SETTLE HERE

C. A. Sutherland Is Pleased With City's Beauty and Quietness

So impressed with the brightness, beauty and quiet of Victoria, Charles A. Sutherland, of Dorset, England, has interrupted his second around-the-world tour with the intention of making his home here. He is at the Glenahiel Hotel.

"This is my first visit to Victoria and I am very much impressed. What struck me immediately was the brightness and beautiful fresh air, the width of the streets and the freedom from excessive row from trams and motor cars," he enthused.

"It is a treat to get back among English people, even to the good old English constable and hear the English tongue spoken as it is in England."

NICE AFTER TROPICS

"After spending months in the tropics, where one is in a state of perspiration all day and most possibly all night, it is a treat to be without it."

"I have made several trips up Island and the country appeals to me so much that I have decided to remain for the present, at least."

Mr. Sutherland has many interesting tales to tell of his travels, and in every country he visited he obtained information as to the general conditions there.

"I had thought of settling in New Zealand, but the way the new Government talked about taxing a man who had saved money to pay for those who have no jobs or didn't want to work, did not appeal to me. So, I decided to move out," he added.

PEOPLE HOPEFUL

On his second world tour, he left England last year and went to Colombia, Ceylon, where he spent a month touring and living on tea and rubber estates. He found everywhere a hopeful over improved conditions of tea and rubber, owing to the control system, governing production, output and price, functioning satisfactorily. The people of Ceylon he found to be exceedingly courteous.

"In fact, when they propose you for temporary membership in their clubs, they rather overdo their kindness," he explained.

From there he went to Singapore and on to Java and Netherlands East Indies, thence to Australia, arriving there in March of this year.

"Calling at Darwin, which I found exceedingly hot, I was surprised to see Australians, dripping with perspiration, unloading steamers while Chinese sat watching them. Practically all the stores in Darwin are run by Chinese, where hard-working Australians spend their wages. To me, this appeared to be the wrong way about."

VISIT AUSTRALIA

"I then visited Brisbane, which I thought a fine city, especially the approach to it, up the river. I also visited Sydney and went out to the Geelong Caves. To me, Sydney's main asset is her beautiful sandy beaches and her wonderful gardens. From Australia, Mr. Sutherland went to New Zealand, where he visited the famous Glow-Worm cave. He thought this show of 'Mother Nature' was the most magnificent he had ever seen."

"I next went to Fiji Island, which I understood to be a British colony. When I got there I discovered that, except for the Government, everything is run from Australia," the traveler said. "The chief source of revenue comes from the sugar industry controlled by the C.S.R. Company of Australia. The gold mining is operated from Australia, and two out of the three big stores supplying all the island are Australian. Obviously their results are good, as the island, last year, had a surplus of half a million dollars on their budget with practically no taxation."

FILIANS FRIENDLY

Suva, on Fiji Island, with its magnificent stretch of deep water protected by a coral reef, would make a splendid seaplane base, in Mr. Sutherland's opinion. "The Fijian people are friendly, unspoiled and clean in their habits. Some Europeans call them indolent because they don't care whether they work or not, but they certainly are a happy people. In my opinion, it will be a very day when people teach them democracy and put the spirit of discontent among them."

Honolulu is certainly the "pearl of the Pacific," according to Mr. Sutherland, but as a traveler there seems to rise the best interest as he finds great delight in long, brisk walks.

From there he sailed to Yokohama, and was delighted to find Japanese papers printing half their edition in English. "I thought it a real compliment to the English race," he commented.

Spending some time in Japan, Mr. Sutherland visited all points of interest, and was pleased with the country. He found the climate too hot, however. The Japanese he met were charming and Mr. Sutherland believes the longer they put off the emancipation, the better for them.

Leaving Japan, he came here aboard the St. Empress of Canada on its recent crossing.

LANDS BUTTON FISH

To George J. Warren, Victoria, Publicity Commissioner goes the distinction of being the first fisherman to gain gold buttons from both the Tye Salmon Club of Campbell River and the King Salmon Club of Comox.

Mr. Warren landed a forty-five pound fish Monday at Comox to win his King Salmon button. Last Saturday he claimed a silver button from the Comox club with a thirty-six and one-half pound salmon. The publicity commissioner has long been the holder of the gold button from the Tye Club.

TEST SHIPS THIS WEEK

Tacoma Oriental Company Will Probably Resume Service to Orient

The Tacoma Oriental Steamship Company, which has not operated under its ocean mail contract for six months, has been authorized by the postoffice of the United States to resume sailings subject to the mail service vessels undergoing speed tests.

Sailings of the company's steamships Seattle and Shelton are set for this week. The company's contract, awarded on June 26, 1929, for service between Tacoma and Manila via certain Oriental ports, specifies the use of Class Six vessels, capable of maintaining a speed of ten knots at sea in ordinary weather.

TOTAL OBLIGATION
The Tacoma company's move to resume operations is believed to be prompted by a desire to have its service active at the time the proposed United States Maritime Commission takes over administration of the Merchant Marine Act of 1936. According to the statement of past department's Shipping Board Bureau, the company has overdue principal payments of $186,665 for seven ships. The oldest date is given as June, 1933, and the company also has interest of $271, making its total obligation to the Government, $190,636.

While the Government Shipping Agency feels it is secured for this obligation through its preferred mortgage on the company's vessels, officials have indicated some interest in the Tacoma Oriental's resumption of operations. It is said the agency has received requests from shippers in the Northwest for the shipping service previously given by the American Flag Line operated from Tacoma.

PAYMENTS PROVIDED
The company's mail contract provides for payment of $287,646 from July 1 to next June 30, the date when all existing contract awards under the Jones-White Act of 1920 are terminated in accordance with the new act. To the end of the contract the company's mail pay is estimated at $1,073,092, but the new law does not permit prospective profits of earnings to be calculated in adjustment of contract.

Tacoma Oriental Steamship Company was organized in 1928. During the first three years of operations the Tacoma Oriental fleet was managed by the Steamer Navigation Company. In 1931, Admiral Oriental Line and its subsidiary, American Mail Line, acquired a 76 per cent stock ownership in the company by purchase from one of its stockholders. Coincident with this transaction States Steamship Company disposed of a 20 per cent interest in the Tacoma Oriental Company. Thereafter the Admiral Oriental and the American Mail Line co-operated in the operation of the Tacoma service.

HERE EARLY TODAY
No further advice have been received from the ship, the time for the arrival today of the Ss. Princess McKinley is still 7 a.m. at Ribbet Piers. Captain C. F. Bryant, U.S.N.R., is master of the big Oriental liner. The McKinley has passengers, mail and cargo for Victoria and will be here about three hours.

AHEAD OF TIME
In order to take care of the customary heavy movement of merchandise to French ports and Antwerp during the Fall, the French Line is dispatching two vessels, the Ss. Vincennes and the Ss. San Jose, ahead of time from Europe, and the following dates from Vancouver to Havre, Dunkirk, Bordeaux and Antwerp will be maintained, according to Empire Shipping Company, British Columbia agents.

Ss. San Diego, August 31; Ma. Oregon, September 12; Ss. Wisconsin, September 27; Ss. San Jose, October 12; Ss. San Francisco, October 27; Ms. Washington, November 5; Ss. Wyoming, November 15; Ss. San Antonio, November 25.

Planes Search for Overdue Vessel in Atlantic

HALIFAX, Aug. 18 (C)—Canadian Air Force planes sped along the Nova Scotia coast today, joining Mounted Police cutters in a search for the three-masted schooner St. Clair Theriault, unreported for sixteen days on a coastal trip from Port Hawkesbury, N.S., to Bridgewater.

The 400-ton schooner was traveling in ballast from the Cape Breton port on a trip which ordinarily takes but five days. Storms have swept the coast and it was believed at first the ship sought refuge in some remote bay or cove.

Victoria cricketers gained their second successive triumph yesterday at Macdonald Park when they defeated C. W. Twite's side, 131 to 59, in the second day's match of the annual "Cricket Week".

Splendid batting by J. R. Appleton, R. H. Moffatt and the veteran H. A. "Giddy" Goward paved the way to victory for the locals.

Twite's team batted nine men, and except for C. W. Twite, the skipper, and Reg Weman, well-known local cricketer, fared badly against the bowling of Gibbons and Bosson.

Twite and Weman scored forty-six of the total runs made by the losers.

Victoria put on 118 for the fall of two wickets in the second innings and declared.

Twite's team, with Weman and Moffatt, made a bold bid for victory, but their chances faded when Weman was retired by Tomlin's spectacular running catch, and Twite was bowled by Moffatt.

Today the Victoria Cricket Club will play Cowichan. The match will start at 10:30 o'clock, and stumps will be drawn at 6 o'clock.

The local team follows: G. C. Grant (captain), H. A. Goward, H. A. Tomlin, M. Allen, R. Moffatt, D. V. Palin, D. Hines, G. H. Kinch, F. Bosson, C. Appleton and F. G. Barber-Starkey.

Umpire, Rev. F. W. Weaver.

Scorer, W. Land.

Fashion Designing Offers Visitor Here From Alberta Paying Career for Women

Miss B. Cameron Small, Fashion Artist of Paris Staff of Leisure, During Visit Here Talks Entertainingly About Her Work

"New York and Paris both say that London is becoming more and more the centre of fashion. One of the principal reasons for this is that London is one of the few remaining places where royalty is to be found, with all that this implies in the way of social life," reports Miss B. Cameron Small, a well-known and attractive young journalist, fashion-designer and fashion-artist connected with the Paris staff of the new magazine, Leisure, who has been a visitor in the city for the past few days.

Of an old Scottish family, daughter of the head of Edinburgh University, very pretty, vivacious and keenly interested in her profession, Miss Cameron Small is visiting the North American continent in connection with fashion and designing work for the Amusements Press.

She spent some weeks in New York in this capacity before coming here, via New Mexico, Hollywood and San Francisco to join her friend, Miss Frances Holman, for a short time in Victoria. At the time of the interview with The Colonist representative she was wearing a very chic black dress, designed by the famous Parisian house of Maison Armande, the distinctive feature of which was the material itself, which she devised for its special role of "cocktail frock" with an all-over printed design showing, in colored writing, the names of different famous restaurants of Paris—Ritz, Maxim's, La Tour, Ambassadeur, Flore and Armande. With it was worn a smart hat of Bakura straw, very shallow, with shoulder-width brim, specially designed for her by Erik.

DEPENDS ON PARIS

In New York, which she reached at the end of April, she came into association at once with people interested in fashion design. Through them she saw most of the leading New York designers and their merchandise.

"Compared with Paris and London, I found that although New York has her own designers, she depends very much on Paris still," she notes. "Where New York excels is in casual sports clothes, which are worn very much more on this side than in Paris or London." This she attributes to the fact of the much longer summers on this continent, and the altogether more informal mode of life, which makes it possible to wear sports frocks "all round the clock," which the smart dress cannot possibly do either in Paris or London, and the generally more out-of-door way of living.

On her way across the continent, as well as in the great American metropolises, Miss Cameron Small says she has picked up many valuable hints.

"Correct Apparel For Women"

Madame Range Limited

Fletcher Building Douglas St.

able tips about what women are interested in the way of clothes, make-up, personal adornment, and personal environment. The fashion designer must know not only her own country, but the life and ways, needs and temperament of women in other countries, says this interested observer. In New Mexico she found entrancing suggestions for design in the beautiful work and vegetable dyes of the Indians. In Hollywood, which she called "the most fascinating unreal place" she had ever been in, she had discovered another great world of ideas in the way of dress designs, besides "the most wonderful hospitality."

DESIGN IN FILMS

Especially was she interested, in Hollywood, in the work of those engaged in dress design for the films. Very few people who went to films thought of the designer, for whom she herself, as a designer, has the greatest admiration. Their part in the making or unmaking of a film was tremendous. She referred to the work of Walter Plunkett, who has designed the clothes for "Mary of Scotland," a preview of which she saw while in California. The dresses, which are the result of exhaustive research, she thought would probably influence styles during the coming season, as Mr. Plunkett, anticipating that the feminine world would "go Scotch" after seeing the film, had designed a collection of Autumn styles in which velvets and suedes and tartans were emphasized. Plunkett's next work was the designing of dresses for "Portrait of a Rebel," which, using muslins, would influence next Spring's styles, she prophesied.

"Practically every current event has its influence on the styles," she notes. Every contemporary historical happening seemed to leave its stamp on women's dresses, as, for instance, the Turkishham discovered in Egypt a few years ago. Fashions in dress in their turn affected fashions in make-up.

"American women use make-up to good advantage because they make it accentuate all their natural attractiveness. English women still have to learn how to emphasize their natural beauty. French women lead the world in this art, and perfected it long before the American woman came into the field," she commented. While on the subject, she spoke of the importance which French women gave to the hair. American women, whose charm and vivacity she much admires, were strangely slack about the coiffure, probably owing to their universal interest in sports.

"As a profession, fashions and fashion designing should be much more considered among girls than it is as offering a career," this very successful young designer suggests. It offers many branches and pays well.

Father came downstairs carrying his jacket over his arm. He looked hard at his wife and then at his son.

"That boy has taken money from my pocket," he stormed.

"Henry," she ejaculated, "how can you say that? Why, it might have been me."

Father shook his head.

"No, no my dear," he replied, "it wasn't you. There was some left."

Movie Stars Go Shopping In Vancouver

REVELSTOCK, Aug. 18.—Imagine being in a new country 6,000 miles from home and not being able to do any shopping for eight long weeks! This is exactly what has happened to the two feminine stars of "The Great Barrier," Canadian railway construction epics which is being filmed in the Rockies by Gaumont British, these being Antoinette Cellier, who is playing the important role of "Mary Moody" in the pioneering adventure drama, and Lilli Palmer, the "Lou" of the Rat Trap Saloon episodes.

Usually, the first step taken by the average woman on reaching a distant place, particularly in a strange land, is toward the big stores where she can browse around and buy this and that which is different or cheaper and, of course, a souvenir or two. In this connection, husbands are frequently heard to say that their wives are "born shoppers."

SHOPPING SPREE

In the case of these players of "The Great Barrier" cast, however, they bade farewell to England's shores on June 19 and it was not until August 17 that a break occurred in the production schedule to enable them to slip away to Vancouver to satisfy the pent-up desire for a "shopping spree." They had rushed from boat to waiting train at Quebec and had been whisked across the continent to "location" in the British Columbia Interior without having more than the distant tops of tall buildings in the cities en route.

IN VANCOUVER

Many were the questions asked by Miss Cellier and Miss Palmer when they learned they could get away for a few days. "Can I buy furs in Vancouver in summer?" "Will the advance styles be in yet?" "Do they sell woollens?" "Are the stores in Vancouver big ones?" "Can I buy anything I want in Vancouver?" These were some of the hurried questions which mere males of "The Great Barrier" unit tried to answer, although they didn't know any more about it than the ladies themselves. Thus, at last, the two actresses were foot-loose among Vancouver's stores for a week, probably completely forgetting the haunting call of "camera."

Opera Star Works Hard

LILY PONS

By LILIAN CAMPBELL
"I Work Too Much" might well be the title Miss Lily Pons' next picture. Her last was "I Dream Too Much" for the diminutive opera singer and motion picture actress has been so very busy that she can't manage to gain the weight she is supposed to.

However, Miss Pons did manage to snatch the month of July to spend in Connecticut, with weekly visits to New York. Her next film is "Love Song" which she is starting immediately en route to Hollywood, accompanied by her mother, who has just come from France to be with her. Radio broadcasts will resume in the Autumn.

And while Miss Pons is learning lines and doing her picture, she is learning the role in "Coco" or by Rimsky-Korsakoff, in which she will appear in Metropolitan opera next season.

BUY PLANE FOR FLIGHT

Japanese Youths Hope to Disprove Countrymen Are Poor Flyers

LOS ANGELES, Aug. 18 (AP)—Planning a one-stop flight from Seattle to Tokyo, two American-born Japanese youths today bought the four-year-old express plane formerly owned by Laura Ingalls, aviatrix from a Glendale aircraft brokerage firm.
The youths are Benny Chojin, twenty-four, and John Takemoto, twenty-five, both of Alameda. They said they expect to take off for Seattle early next year after they had replaced the ship's present engine with a 500-horsepower supercharged motor, installed more fuel tanks and equipped the plane with a two-way radio and automatic compasses. Then they will await only the good weather season.
On their 4,800-mile route, they plan to stop only at Nome, Alaska, 1,800 miles from Seattle.
"We want to disprove the general belief that Japanese are poor aviators," said Takemoto, who will accompany his 105-pound chum as co-pilot and navigator.

SHARK DRIFTED ASHORE IN SURF

Birds Feasted on Remains of Fish Before It Could Be Thoroughly Examined

LONG BEACH, Aug. 18 (AP)—A curious sea creature was found on Long Beach recently by A. J. Deuster, ship lines and Pan-American Airways. He said constant radio communication will be maintained between the clipper planes and steamships to provide weather information and other services.
The creature was found drifting in the surf almost dead, and, upon being examined, proved to be a shark-like creature over six feet long with a white back and shiny silver color underneath. It had a formidable looking head, displaying three rows of teeth.
By appearances the creature had been hooked on the near-by fishing banks, as part of the lower jaw had been torn away. It was the opinion that it had become entangled in some of the hulked gear and later on in a weakened condition had drifted in on the beach. Almost before the carcass could be hauled up and thoroughly examined, the eagles and other shore birds were waiting in the near-by trees to devour it.

England Captures Final Test Match From Touring Side

Defeats India by Nine Wickets After Visitors Had Scored 312 in Second Innings — England Passes Required Total for Loss of One Wicket—Allen Bowls in Great Style

LONDON, Aug. 18.—England won the third and final test cricket match against India today by nine wickets. The Mother Country scored 471 runs for eight wickets, declared, and 64 for one, against the touring team's 222 and 312. The first encounter between the two countries resulted in victory for England by a similar score and the second ended in a draw.

India made a gallant second-innings effort to force a draw today, but failed to master the strong English bowling. When they went to bat a second time yesterday afternoon the visitors were 249 runs in arrears, but before stumps were drawn had scored 156 runs for three wickets.

PLAYED CAREFULLY

C. K. Nayudu, Indian batsman, played carefully but skillfully today. He made 81 runs and completed his 1,000 for the present tour. Nayudu defended stubbornly, scoring eight fours, many of his strokes being fine cuts.

Y. S. Bannawasi, Indian batsman, was given no support after Nayudu's dismissal at 205. Earlier in the innings V. E. Merchant completed 52 and Amar Singh and Dilawar Hussain 44 each.

English batting was featured by Walter Hammond's 217 and 128 by T. S. Worthington. G. O. Allen, England's skipper, bowled well in the Indians' second innings, taking seven wickets for 80 runs.

After two days of brilliant weather the final day's play was fought in dull weather with occasional bursts of sunshine.

SILENT GLOWS TAKE SECOND BALL FIXTURE

Nose Out Painter's Bruins, 4-3, in City Softball Play-Offs

Rube Lamb's trusty war club brought the Silent Glows through to a 4-3 victory over Painter's Bruins yesterday evening at the Royal Athletic Park in the second game of the city play-offs, and kept his teammates in the running for the championship.

With the fuelmen leading 3-2 in the sixth inning, and two men on the cushions, Lamb singled to centre field and sent Turner and Robertson scampering across the home plate. Robertson's run proved to be the deciding marker.

With the series deadlocked at one game each, the third and deciding fixture will be played tomorrow evening at the Royal Athletic Park at 8 o'clock.

TWO-RUN LEAD

Bruins enjoyed a two-run lead until the sixth frame in last night's game, and appeared to be heading for their second straight victory and the championship. Along came the fuelmen, and after once being behind they could not pull up.

Ken Fleming, who plays in the outer gardens for the Glows, had a perfect night at bat with three hits, two singles and a double.

Defensively the Bruins were the smarter club and many times pulled off spectacular plays.

With the willow, the Glows proved superior and laced out seven hits to their opponents' five.

Harold Turner, on the hill for the losers, was wild at times, and during the evening issued seven free trips to the initial cushion.

Jack Caddell, who does the receiving for the Silent Glows, pulled off a circus catch of Roy O'Keefe's foul fly ball in the fifth inning. Caddell juggled the ball three times, and then finally held it, much to the delight of the fans.

Painter's Bruins	11	0	10	0	3	5	1

SAVAGE ATTACK ENDS COMEBACK HOPES OF VETERAN BOSTONIAN

"Brown Bomber" Uncorks Ummereful Two-Fisted Offensive to Hand Former Champion Most Crushing Defeat of His Long Career—Sharkey Goes to Canvas Three Times

NEW YORK, Aug. 18.—The Braddocks and the Schmellings can look to their laurels. Joe Louis, the Detroit man killer, is on the war-path again.

The crowd stood and howled as Sharkey, a bewildered expression on his face, pulled himself to his feet with the aid of the ropes as the timekeeper called "nine."

Louis was waiting for him. Before Jack could more than raise his gloved negro torso in with a series of rights and lefts. First he fired a right to the head and a left to the body. Then a left to the head and a right to the body. Sharkey hit the resin for another count of nine.

Had this round gone a few seconds longer Jack likely would have been counted out. He staggered to his feet after the second knockdown and was holding on in a clinch as the bell rang.

Louis, as fresh as when he started and showing all the savage fire that marked his work prior to the Schmelling bout, lost no time putting on the finishing touches in the third.

THIRD KNOCKDOWNS

Sharkey, his mouth and eye bleeding from the terrific punishment he absorbed in the second, ran squarely into a short right flush to the jaw and hit the boards for the third knockdown, again for the count of nine.

Dazed, bruised and aching all over, he gallantly climbed back to his feet, just in time to be caught with two sizzling lefts and a short right to the head. Down he went to stay.

The crowd gave Jack a rousing hand as he regained his feet just after the timekeeper reached the count of ten. Louis was ready to charge in again but referee Arthur Donovan waved him back.

Sharkey landed only one real blow. Early in the second he fired a long left that caught Louis on the face. The blow carried so much steam and jarred the negro momentarily, but he recovered to hit Jack a short right that opened the sailor's left eye.

Jack, weighing 187 1/4, was lean and tanned and looked in perfect physical shape. Louis' weight was 199 3/4.

SAILOR DRIVES BACK

Before and after he got his one blow Sharkey spent most of the time trying to ward off the killing shots of the brown bomber. His left jab held Joe back for a few seconds at the start of each round, but once Joe found the range the sailorman was driven back on the defensive.

Louis never gave Sharkey a chance to belt him with his right, as Jack had predicted he would do. Whether he still is as easy to hit with a good right was not established tonight because he never once gave Sharkey an opportunity to open up with this weapon, the blow that sent the negro to defeat at the hands of Schmelling.

There was no official announcement of the attendance of receipts, but best guesses were that the rather disappointing crowd of 35,000 paid approximately $150,000, both below Promoter Mike Jacobs' estimates to see the bomber launch his comeback drive.

ROUND ONE

Arthur Donovan called them to the center of the ring. Louis prepared a couple of lefts then missed a right swing to the head as they went into a clinch. Louis caught Sharkey with two hard rights and drove him to the ropes with two lefts and a series of right uppercuts. Sharkey jabbed, but missed a right as they went into a clinch. Louis caught Sharkey on the ropes with another right and then missed a left as Sharkey held.

ROUND TWO

ROUND THREE

Louis sparred carefully, but Jack came in with a left that forced the negro to give ground. Louis sent Sharkey down with two lefts for a count of nine. Sharkey appeared to be out on his feet as Louis sent him to the mat with two hard lefts for the final count.

For eight years Helen Jacobs pursued the Wimbledon trail that leads to international supremacy in women's tennis. Four times she was finalist, only to fail at the last hurdle. But this year she broke her Wimbledon jinx and won the All-England championship that she coveted so long. Helen demonstrates in these two views, one of the strokes that carried her to the peak of her tennis career—a forehand shot of a slow lob. She is practising it for use during the United States championship matches at Forest Hills, where she will be the defending monarch.

WELL-FULL SOCK A FEW BE DELIBERATE ABOUT PRACTICE.

Alex Morrison says: There are many ways to practice—right or wrong. Among the wrong ways is that of hurrying from one shot to the next. A player having a large number of balls to hit will waste little time between shots.

When you go out to practice you should take enough time over each shot to know that your attention is centred on the essentials—you must watch your swing.

If you are not sure about your attention being properly directed before you start your swing, stop, loosen your hold on the club and start all over again.

You'll find this well worth while because the proper mental process must precede the physical action if you are to be other than accidentally successful.

BRADDOCK TO REPORT BACK NEXT TUESDAY

Champion Ordered to Specialist After Hand Was Closely Examined

NEW YORK, Aug. 18 (AP).—Solomon's battery of physicians peered at Jimmy Braddock's ailing left hand today, then offered such contradictory testimony as to whether the injury was serious enough to warrant postponement of the heavyweight championship fifteen-round title against Max Schmeling next month that the New York State Athletic Commission ordered Jimmy to consult a "prominent bone specialist" and report the outcome next Tuesday.

Indications tonight were that the bout would not be held in September. Jimmy Johnston, boxing director of Madison Square Garden, said the fight would be held next May in the event a postponement became necessary. Meanwhile, Gould went ahead with plans for an operation on the champion's hand within a few days.

JUST A QUESTION It was on the question of whether or not an operation was necessary that the physicians disagreed. Commission doctors declared they found evidence of a stiffening of the joint between the little finger and the third finger of the left hand. Clinical treatment, they said, would cure the fault if anything would.

Gould, however, countered with the testimony of Dr. Balenzweig and Dr. Henry M. Morchsky, of New York, both of whom advised an operation before Braddock should be permitted to box again.

After hearing this contradictory evidence, the commission ordered Braddock to consult another specialist and report back to the commission next week.

How It Started

SPY

When "Moses" sent to spy out Jazer," he was simply proceeding according to a practice long since old.

Spies have always been pretty nearly everywhere, and in the present distraught state of international affairs, there is hardly any nation that does not "employ to counter."

J. Walter Christie, famous American tank inventor, was told brazenly by foreign agents whose approach he fought.

"You might as well sell us your secret! If you don't we will steal it."

It is a commonplace that military and naval information is almost openly bought, "borrowed" or bought—failing these, mayhem and murder are not without the rules.

The word "spy" does not merit such ugly associations.

Originally, we have it from the Old English spien, akin to the Latin spere and the Sanskrit spic, to see.

Early upon introduction into our language, however, it began to be used, in addition to its original sense of simply "to see," with the significance of watching from a distance or while in a state of concealment, discovering by close watch or examination, and, finally, surviving secretly the resources of a potential enemy country.

Jane Dixon Says:

TODAY'S PROBLEMS DEAL WITH TWO PHILANDERING HUSBANDS, ONE OF WHOM WENT INSANE—A WOMAN CANNOT FORCE HER HUSBAND TO LOVE HER, BUT SHE CAN HOLD HIS RESPECT.

Write it not for the fact that I know marriage can be and often is a splendidly happy state, the dull on my desk at this writing would lead me to conclude the domestic scene is a slither of broken vows, frustrated desires, shattered hearts, accusations, deceptions, tears and violence.

Are the existing laws governing marriage and its conduct inadequate?

Should marriage be made more difficult and divorce easier?

Or should marriage be easier and divorce more difficult?

What is the solution to the problem of a man and woman who enter into partnership in good faith, and then find their hopes nothing more than a heap of ashes on a hearthstone?

WEARY You have come to the "end of a long road with a bad turn." You are about to separate from your husband because he has scandalized himself, you and your ten-year-old son by maintaining a girl who works with him in his place of business. He only lives with you because of the son, but has asked you to find a place for yourself and the boy in another neighborhood. He doesn't trust you. He doesn't believe you. Everything you do is wrong. You love him. What shall you do?

SHE CAN HOLD HIS RESPECT

Answer: Go to the neighborhood. The affair with his co-worker may be an initiation. If so, your husband's love for his son and his respect for you as a woman of pride and of spirit will bring him back to you. Then you may use your own judgment about reinstating him. In his present condition of mind you have become a constant irritation to him, and finally you will be an intolerable nuisance. You cannot force a man, even a husband, to love you. But you can hold his respect, and respect has been known to revive a withering love.

MAS You are in your mid-thirties, the mother of two children. At sixteen you married a man many years your senior. The marriage was unhappy. Sordid. Your husband had one affair after the other. No sooner would he break up with one woman and vow by all that was holy to behave thereafter than he'd find another light of love. He made good money, was an excellent provider. You thought your heart was broken. Now you find it wasn't even cracked. After several years his philanderings meant nothing to you, but you stood by your marriage bargain because of your children, and the comfortable home he provided for them. At times he used violence in repressing your pleas that he act like a man. Then his business went into a decline. He had a nervous breakdown. For several years he's been in an institution for the insane. Your teenage son has been a mother for an unfortunate child—pity. Love died long ago, by his hand. The doctors say there is no possibility of his recovering, and forbid your taking him home although you would be willing to do so if it would help him. You go to see him regularly.

Now—you've met a man your own age. You love him completely. He loves you. Neighbors and friends gossip. Are you hurting your children by loving one who is not their father? Must you go on alone through the years living only for them or is it your right to love and live again?

WIFE ENTITLED TO FREEDOM

Answer: The persons who gossip because you have found a ray of sunshine in a dark sky are not neighbors. They are merely people who live close by. They are not your friends. They are people you have met.

Incurable insanity is grounds for divorce in various States and countries. If the severance of your marriage ties which, under the conditions are merely a form, does not interfere with your religious principles, you may seek your freedom and build your life anew.

I cannot see wherein you are blameworthy for the misfortune that overcame your husband or for the bankruptcy of your marriage.

Modern justice not only allows men and women to remedy their mistakes and to rehabilitate their lives, but encourages them to do so.

I hope you and the young man will be valiant enough to fight your way through to happiness.
